Labour Courts and Industrial Tribunals in Delhi

1405. SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) how many labour courts and industrial tribunals are functioning both at Central and State level in Delhi as on date;

(b) details thereof, labour court and tribunal-wise;

(c) how many cases are pending presently before each of them;

(d) how many are two, three and five years old disputes among them; and

(e) what steps are being taken to speed up the disposal of disputes pending before each of them?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (SHRI G. VENKAT SWAMY): (a) and (b) As on date there are 3 Industrial Tribunals and 10 Labour Courts at State level and one Central Government Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court functioning in Delhi.

(c) and (d) A Statement is enclosed (see below)

(e) While effecting procedural changes with a view to expedite disposal of cases is a continuous process, some of the more important steps taken recently in this regard are as follows:—

— norms for disposal of cases of each Presiding Officer have been fixed;

— review meetings are convened to discuss possible remedial measures for disposal of long pending cases;

— while old cases are accorded priority, fresh cases are being assigned to the courts having lesser pendency;

— parties to the dispute are discouraged to seek adjournments and where unavoidable short duration adjournments are allowed. They are also impressed upon to complete all the connected formalities as expeditiously as possible; and — additional labour courts are created keeping in view the overall pendency and subject to financial constraints.
